

Larry Taylor

Hahira, GA

-Email me on Indeed: <http://www.indeed.com/r/Larry-Taylor/5b0b26a18759cf96>

Work Experience

Distribution Operations Engineer

Georgia Power Company - Atlanta, GA

January 2016 to December 2018

- Provided technical support to area desk operators such as zones of protection and operation of line relays and overcurrent devices
- Investigated root cause of transmission line operations
- Calculated monthly reliability indexes
- Investigated NERC reportable outages

Enhanced Power Quality Engineer

Georgia Power Company - Valdosta, GA

January 2002 to December 2016

- Provided technical support to client managers and customers
- Provided on site diagnostics of electrical disturbances
- Recognized technical sales opportunities of UPS and Surge suppression devices
- Assisted customers with troubleshooting electrical issues either due to utility operations or internal plant issues.
- Provided monitoring for harmonic contents at new solar facilities

Substation Test Engineer / Transmission Operator

Georgia Power Company. - Valdosta, GA

January 1997 to December 2002

- Tested and commissioned substation equipment such as breakers and HV transformers
- Performed substation routines setting and testing relays and operational performance of protection schemes
- Wrote and performed switching within substations for maintenance clearances
- Operated Transmission assets to maximize profitability and safety
- Managed installation procedures of new substation equipment
- Provided technical support in the maintenance of substation equipment

Key Account Executive

Georgia Power Company. - Augusta, GA

January 1995 to December 1997

- Managed 21 accounts with $19 million in revenue
- Achieved 100% Very Satisfied rating for Georgia Power
- Built relationships with customers through superior customer service
- Provided Rate Analysis for customers plant applications and expansions
- Implemented training courses for customer's employees
- Offered products and services that added value to customer's bottom line

- Provided liaison to customers during power outages and assisted in restoration
- Provided business development and load growth with end use technologies

Industrial and Commercial Accounts Engineer

Georgia Power Company. - Valdosta, GA

January 1992 to December 1995

- Promotion and Cost analysis of electrical end use products
- Rate analysis to ensure proper tariff application
- Provided customer choice proposals to applicable new accounts
- Supervisor on call for power restoration needs
- Provided support to local Chamber of Commerce for business development

Power Distribution Engineer

Georgia Power Company - Cedartown, GA

January 1991 to December 1992

- Designed construction and relocation of distribution line system
- Budgeted material and man-hours to maximize profit
- Served as supervisor on call during restoration needs

Distribution Engineer

Georgia Power Company - Bainbridge, GA

- Designed construction and relocation of distribution line systems
- Provided scheduling for crews and managed projects for construction jobs
- Budgeted material and man-hours to maximize profit
- Served as supervisor on call during restoration needs
- Acted as designated switchman for substations in our area

Education

Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering in Mechanical Engineering

Georgia Institute of Technology-Main Campus

Skills

- Budgeting
- Project management
- Restoration industry experience
- Construction
- Customer service
- Transmissions
- Sales
- Business development
- Software troubleshooting
- Maintenance
- Technical support

- Account management
- Mechanical engineering